

A Corridor Study of U.S. 29 in South Carolina between I-85 to U.S. 178/76 (East River St) is being conducted by the Appalachian Council of Governments (ACOG) in partnership with the S.C. Department of Transportation, Anderson County, and the Anderson Clemson Area Transportation Study (ACATS).

What do you think the future of U.S. 29 should look like? Share your vision with us!

Take the Online Survey Today!

Provide your comments about:

- Where current issues along the corridor are.
- What kind of improvements you want to see.
- How you want U.S. 29 to look in the future.

The survey will be available until March 22.
