Criminal Justice Coordinating Council (CJCC) Announces January Meeting

ANDERSON, SC – The Criminal Justice Coordinating Council (CJCC) of Anderson County will hold its regularly scheduled monthly meeting on Monday, January 7, 2019 at 4:00 p.m. at the Anderson University Center of Excellence at 200 Bleckley St., Anderson, SC.

During this meeting, CJCC executive and sub-committee chairs will present an overview of criminal justice system metrics, including data addressing measures of mental health, military service, and population metrics within the detention center. This data will continue to inform the development of the framework through which CJCC leadership will establish countywide, multi-agency goals and strategies for improving the local criminal justice system's efficiency and effectiveness.

This meeting is open to the public. Members of the media wishing to cover the event should arrive at least 30 minutes prior to the meeting's start so as not to interfere with planned events. CJCC Chairman, George Ducworth, will be available to answer questions following the event.

###

The Criminal Justice Coordinating Council (CJCC) facilitates sustainable, coordinated, data-driven improvements to the County's criminal justice system, thereby improving public safety and community well-being. Members of the Council comprise a broad cross-section of stakeholders from key organizations that directly and indirectly impact the local criminal justice system with the intent of developing greater cooperation among agencies and local governmental units.
